
FOR G. O. P. CONVENTION

Claims of Contesting Delegations Continue to Occupy Attention of Committee

CHICAGO, June 2.—Claims of contesting delegations from Florida and Georgia continued today to occupy the attention of the republican national committee. The prospect of night sessions to clean up the slate before the convention meets next Tuesday seems to be growing.

Political forces are gathering slowly here and, while the pre-convention circle has its usual line of gossip and prediction, no political leader of recognized importance has up to this time been willing to attach his name to a definite prediction of whom the convention will name as its candidate or when it is likely to do it. The end of the week with the probable adjournment of congress, however, will bring all the national leaders to Chicago and by Saturday or Sunday convention platforms are expected to take definite form.

Sen's Plan Picket Duty

Representatives of the militant suffragists are on the ground preparing to picket the convention hall to enforce their demand for a platform declaration calling on the states which have not ratified the woman suffrage amendment to do so at once. The national committee yesterday by unanimous vote called upon all republican states to act promptly on the ratification.

Johnson Forces to Parade

The Johnson forces are counting on a burst of speed with the arrival of Senator Johnson here tomorrow. A street parade and demonstration have been arranged.

Senator Harding is coming Thursday also. General Wood is here and at his headquarters at Fort Sheridan, and Governor Lowden already is here. Thus after tomorrow four of the presidential candidates will be on the ground gathering from their forces in person and a more definite line of pre-convention speculation probably will be one of the first results.

Unpledged Mind Power

In the coming convention the uninstructed delegates are holding the balance of power and already plans for sounding them out are being discussed. A caucus of the uninstructed some time after Sunday is one of the plans being canvassed.

Such discussion of the platform plank as is going on among the national committeemen seems to indicate that a majority feel that the prohibition question may be regarded as one not necessary to be included, because the issue has been written into the constitution and has become the law of the land.

Treaty and League Planks

Many committeemen feel that the suffrage question is a parallel one in many respects, because it is awaiting ratification. There seems to be an agreement of opinion that the Mexican plank will follow the pronouncement of four years ago, in which the democratic administration's policy was denounced, and as regards the peace treaty and the League of Nations, the plank adopted by the Indiana state convention may serve as a nucleus for the plank in the national platform.

The selection of a permanent chairman seems to have made no progress in the last three or four days. There is now less talk of the selection of former Senator Beveridge of Indiana and more talk of an agreement on Senator McCormick of Illinois.

The fight for a platform declaration by the republican party for full independence for the Philippines was taken up today by a delegation from the islands headed by Jaime de Veyra.

"By the Jones law of Aug. 25, 1916," declared Mr. de Veyra, "the Philippines were promised their independence as soon as stable government could be established on the islands. The Philippines have that stable government today. America's official representative in the Philippines testifies to its existence."

GOVERNOR PROCLAMS JUNE 14 FLAG DAY

STATE HOUSE, Boston, June 2.—Gov. Coolidge issued yesterday the following proclamation designating Monday, June 14, as Flag day:

"The Commonwealth of Massachusetts, By His Excellency Calvin Coolidge, Governor.

"A Proclamation.

"While the flag of America has become the oldest in design it remains the newest in symbol. In certain fundamental principles it represents there can be no advance for there is no beyond. It is the flag of a people who have arrived. It must be the flag of a people who have the determination to remain. It stands for order and liberty, for freedom of the human hand and the human mind, free speech, free press, free church, it means that property and life and honor shall be inviolate and it recognizes the duty of the people to protect each other in the security of these rights and that all experience and all reason demonstrate that the only source of such protection is in government according to law. Unless it be the symbol of the law administered by a government which has the disposition and the strength to be supreme, all the meaning and the glory of the flag fade away and all reverence for it perishes. It is time to realize that all those who disregard the law or resist the authority of government are disloyal to the flag. Whatever their motive or their station they seek the destruction of all the flag represents.

"That the people of the commonwealth, in accordance with a holy admonition, may 'think on these things,' that they may renew their determination to support and defend these most sacred rights, it has been provided that there shall each year be designated by solemn proclamation a flag day.

"Now, therefore, by that authority, I, Calvin Coolidge, governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, hereby proclaim Monday, June 14, 1920, and direct its observance by flying our national flag, by appropriate exercises in the public schools and among the people that we may come to a fuller realization of our public duties, a renewed determination to maintain the rights that the increased glory of our citizenship may be reflected in the increased glory of our flag.

"Given at the executive chamber, in Boston, this first day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty and the independence of the United States the one hundred and forty-fourth.

"CALVIN COOLIDGE, Governor.

"By His Excellency, the Governor, ALBERT T. LANGTRY, Secretary of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts."

URGE INTELLIGENT CO-OPERATION OF THE CHURCHES WITH NEWSPAPERS

CLEVELAND, June 2.—Reports of the publicity and community commissions were presented at today's session of the church and community convention of the commission on federations of the federal council of churches of Christ in America.

The founder of Christianity would have gotten along with reporters famously, the report of the commission on religious publicity states.

"Had there been newspapers in Jerusalem," the report continues, "every newspaperman would have protested in his heart against the crucifixion, whether the policy of the paper had allowed him to protest publicly or not."

The report pleaded for the intelligent co-operation of the churches with the newspapers for the sake of presenting to the public the larger work for the religious organization but without glaring publicity of the type "formerly employed by patent medicine companies."

ACCEPTS WILSON'S WAGE OFFER

WASHINGTON, June 2.—Anthracite miners and operators formally announced yesterday acceptance of President Wilson's offer for the appointment of a commission to decide their wage controversy.

Sec. Wilson will notify the president at once and the appointment of an anthracite coal commission is expected to follow in a few days.

ROOT SAILS FOR LONDON MEETING

NEW YORK, June 2.—Elihu Root, American member of the organizing committee of the permanent court of international justice of the League of Nations, sailed for England yesterday on the steamship Nieuw Amsterdam, to attend the first meeting of the committee in London, two weeks hence.

5000 WAITERS AND WAITRESSES STRIKE

NEW YORK, June 2.—Five thousand union waiters and waitresses employed in hotels and restaurants here were ordered to strike today. They demand a nine hour day.

TO VISIT BROTHER IN MISSOURI

Ex-Councilman John J. Brady of this city left Boston this afternoon at 2 o'clock for Springfield, Missouri, where he will visit his brother, Rev. Thos.

Brady who has recently been assigned to an excellent parish and beautiful church in that city, from his former parish in another part of Missouri. Mr. Brady will be gone for a month at east. His brother, who said his first mass in St. Patrick's church in this city 17 years ago last Christmas, has visited the ex-councilman at his home here on several occasions and the latter has been planning for a long time to take the trip on which he started today. He is very much attached to his brother and anticipates a pleasant and interesting visit.

CASABIAN CHAMPION ELIMINATED

LONDON, June 2.—Miss Ada Casabian, woman golf champion of Canada, was eliminated today from the British women's golf championship contest. She was defeated by Mrs. Cruikshank of Nairen, 1 up.

PRESIDENT'S SALARY TO REOPEN RUBBER EXEMPT FROM TAX PLANT TOMORROW

WASHINGTON, June 2.—Provisions of the war revenue act requiring the president and all federal judges to pay an income tax on their salaries were declared unconstitutional yesterday by the supreme court in a 7-to-2 decision.

Under the act the president paid on his salary of $75,000 a year approximately $18,000 in taxes. Revenues already collected under the invalid provisions will under the court's decision be refunded by the treasury.

The supreme court's decision was on appeals by Federal District Judge Walter Evans of Louisville, Ky., from lower court decrees dismissing a suit brought by him to recover taxes involuntarily paid. He contended that the federal constitution prohibited judges' salaries being diminished during continuance in office.

Justice Vandewater, who rendered the majority opinion, held that the section of the revenue act violated constitutional provisions prohibiting the diminution of such salaries. Such a tax, he argued, could be gradually increased until the entire salary was taken. The majority opinion held, however, that a federal judge was not exempt from tax on his private income or on his property.

Justice Holmes rendered a dissenting opinion in which Justice Brandeis concurred. He declared that no reason existed why federal judges should be exempt from the income tax.

The majority opinion required about an hour for delivery and was one of the longest rendered by the court in recent years.

BRISTOL, R. I., June 2.—Preparations for resuming full operations tomorrow at the plant of the National India Rubber Co., closed a month because of a strike, were made today by factory officials and national guard officers in charge of the troops which have been on duty since the rioting of last Friday.

Notices announcing the re-opening of the plant, which normally employed about 1500 persons, representing nearly one-third of the population, had been conspicuously posted in all sections of the town.

As a further means of getting word to the employees as to the company's attitude, it was understood that officials had under consideration the calling together of the factory council, a body of workers through which the company in the past had dealt with its employees.

Leaders of the strike movement reiterated their confidence that the test of strength developing with the re-opening of the factory would show that the original body of strikers, numbering about 1000, has been almost doubled and that so many would refuse to return to work that operations could not be continued. Company officials on the other hand declared that many employees had expressed a wish to return. Special precautions will be taken to prevent any demonstration.

About 50 per cent. of the office force was on duty again today. They were escorted to the factory by a military guard, without any sign of disorder.

SPECIALISTS ON THROAT, NOSE AND EAR IN CONVENTION AT CAMBRIDGE

CAMBRIDGE, June 2.—Specialists in the treatment of the throat, nose and ear, met here today for the annual convention of the American Laryngological, Rhinological and Otological society. The convention will continue Friday with numerous business and scientific sessions at Harvard Medical school. Dr. Harris P. Mosher of Boston is president of the society.

Black, green, brown and white amber, as well as the yellow variety, is sometimes found.

MATRIMONY

Mr. John D. Carney, formerly of Keene, N. H., veteran of the world war and a prominent employee of the B. & M. car shops and Miss Ellen F. Sullivan, a popular young lady of the Sacred Heart parish were united in marriage at the Sacred Heart parochial residence yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by Rev. William Mahan, O.M.I. Mr. Harold C. Chase of Concord, N. H., who was in the same military outfit with the groom for two years overseas, acted as best man and Miss Isabelle Carney, of Keene, N. H., a sister of the groom, was the bridesmaid. The bride looked charming in a gown of white crepe de chine with bead trimmings and a picture hat to match. The bridesmaid was becomingly attired in pink embroidered satin. She also wore a picture hat. The bride carried white roses, while the bridesmaid carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Following the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene P. Sullivan, 51 Maple street, where a reception was held and dinner served to members of the immediate families. M. A. Lydon, catered.

The dining room as well as the parlor was beautifully decorated with pink and white and the national colors. An informal musical program was carried out, while dancing specialties were given by Master John and little Miss Margaret Higgins, cousins of the bride. Miss Loretta Sullivan presided at the piano.

Mr. and Mrs. Carney were the recipients of many beautiful wedding gifts. The happy couple left for Boston late yesterday afternoon, where they boarded the boat for Portland, Me. Later they took the train for Canada. After visiting Montreal, Quebec and other places of interest they will return to Lowell where they will be home to their friends at 125 Carlisle street after July 1.

A pretty wedding took place this morning when Mr. Leon L. Leclair and Miss Edwilda Fortin, two well known young people of this city, were united in the bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed at a nuptial mass celebrated at 8 o'clock at St. Joseph's rectory by Rev. L. N. Bachand, O.M.I. The bride wore white tulle and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley. The witnesses were Messrs. Alexis Lamarre and Napoleon Desmarais. At the close of the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. John A. Fortin, 115 Ford street. Mr. and Mrs. Leclair, who were the recipients of numerous wedding gifts will leave this evening on the 9:15 o'clock train for Three Rivers, Que. and upon their return in two weeks they will make their home at 115 Ford street.

DENIES PROPOSING ADMISSION OF VATICAN TO LEAGUE OF NATIONS

ROME, June 2.—Reports published late last week, that A. J. Balfour, former British secretary of state for foreign affairs, had proposed the admission of the Vatican to the League of Nations, are denied in an official statement printed by the Osservatore Romano. It is also said that "no other person" has made any such proposals.

SEC. DANIELS TO SPEAK

Will Address Editorial Association at Boston Tonight—Convention Resumed

BOSTON, June 2.—The National Editorial association in annual convention here today resumed business sessions after devoting yesterday to pleasure trips. The print paper shortage, advertising and circulation were among subjects considered by the delegates. Today's program included as speakers, Jason Rogers, publisher of the New York Globe; Courtland Smith of New York, president of the American Press association; John R. Hathorn, editor of the Providence Journal; Dr. Thomas E. Green of the American Red Cross headquarters at Washington; H. H. Gross of Chicago; H. V. Bailey of Princeton, Ill., and F. E. Hadley, past president of the Minnesota Editorial association.

Secretary of the Navy Daniels was scheduled as the principal speaker at a banquet to be given tonight by the Boston Newspaper Publishers' association.

HOUSE AGAIN REFUSESBONUS TO YEOMEN (F)

BOSTON, June 2.—The house yesterday refused to concur with the senate in voting to extend the soldiers and sailors' bonus to the women and girls who had war jobs and were rated as yeomen (F). Persistent lobbying by women in the house corridors, even while the debate was in progress, increased the number of representatives for the bill from 50 on the first call to 93 for a motion to reconsider the vote, whereby the bill was defeated.

Mr. Reading of Cambridge recalled the scenes at the state house when a similar bill was before the legislature. There had been no change in the situation since last year and hence no reason why the girls should be given the gratuity.

George F. Murphy could see no harm in the corridor lobbying by the girls. He thought they should be given the money. Mr. Steele of Brockton, however, called the proposal "ridiculous," saying that everyone of the girls had had a better job in the war than the one she voluntarily left. Mr. Doyle of New Bedford was against the bill, but he paid a graceful compliment to the lobbyists, saying they were "as nice people as ever lobbied anybody."

Mr. Brimblecom of Newton, in charge of the bill, thought the girls were treated unjustly last year and that the legislature should make amends.

A rising vote on passing the bill to be engrossed gave 50 yeas and 18 nays. An effort to get a rollcall at this stage failed.

NORMAL SCHOOL GRADUATION

Frank W. Wright, director of the division of normal schools of the state board of education, will deliver the principal address at the annual graduation exercises of the State Normal School in Broadway to be held Friday afternoon, June 18. It was announced today, John J. Mahoney, principal of the school, who has been engaged in Americanization work under state auspices for the past year, will present diplomas.

The Year Book credits 35,055 trotters with records of a mile in 2.30 or better and 26,870 pacers in the 2.25 list.

SONG FESTIVAL AT THE OPERA HOUSE

Indications point to a most enjoyable entertainment at the Opera House next Sunday afternoon and evening when the Crescent Hill association, the well known Centralville organization, will present its song festival. A successful rehearsal was held last evening under the direction of Charles D. Slattery. All the favorites who appeared in the recent show staged by the organization in Association hall will be seen and heard Sunday and there will be many newcomers in addition.

The Crescent Hill double male quartet will be heard in a brace of new songs and a feature of the entertainment will be a high class photoplay. In addition an orchestra of nine pieces will furnish music. Tickets for both performances are now on sale at the following places: Noonan's drug store, corner Bridge and First streets; Webster's, corner Third and Bridge streets; Carter & Sherburne Co., Merrimack square; Gallagher's confectionery store, 262 Merrimack street and Campbell's, Tower's corner.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

By Theatres' Own Press Agents

THE OWL THEATRE

Scrappy bear cubs, lions, otters, deer, porcupines, wolves and wild cats, a dog pledged by fate to fight his greatest battle for a girl—that is the setting for "Back to God's Country," a James Oliver Curwood story put into film by First National, which is to play at the Owl theatre for the last three days of the week, beginning tomorrow. If it's hot, just step into the Owl, for the scenes of the frozen north, actually taken inside the rim of the Arctic circle, where the leading man lost his life, will make you feel cool. And remember that in selecting the Owl, you are picking a house where quality is the watchword and not quantity, though at this, there's nothing sadder about the size of the bills there.

In addition to this big feature, there will be a Judge Brown story, about the Denver man who makes life worth living for boys, also a Comedy feature, the different kind of comedy, an episode of "The Lost City" and a news reel.

"Back to God's Country" is a different kind of film. It is not the common place picture which depends upon the eternal triangle or lavish interior sets for its attractions. It is the eternal story of human nature in the raw state. And in this picture, animal nature in the raw is also depicted. Away up in the north is Wapiti the killer, snapping up blood-flecked jaws at the brutal whips of the traders, over the mangled forms of dog enemies about him. To this martyr of human brutes comes the promise of delivery through a young white girl, Dolores Lobeau. This leads the trouble in her eyes—a husband dying from the villainy of a human beast, a father dead by this same brute's hand, a post trader in league to get the white girl—and Wapiti comes through.

It is about such massive outline that James Oliver Curwood built his great story. Self shipman, champion swimmer, is the star, and does some of her wonderful water stunts in this film, such as swimming the perilous rapids, it was as she emerged from a stream in all her beauty that the eyes of Rydal the Jackal of the north saw her and only a huge brown bear, the friend of Dolores, thwarted his hand- ish plan. If you have seen "The River's End," you will want to see this. If you haven't, now is the time to get acquainted with real quality pictures.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE Final performances of "Everywoman," the noted screen classic of fashion and beauty, will be given at the Merrimack Square theatre this evening and tomorrow afternoon there will be an entire change of program.

The feature for the week-end will be "Treasure Island," Robert Louis Stevenson's most noted work. The bold buccaneers of the book will live again in the remarkable photoplay production and Maurice Tourneur again achieves such triumphs as greeted his productions of "The Life Line" and "Victory."

The famous producer has retained on the screen all the romance and villainy of the Spanish Main that Stevenson knew so well how to portray. In excellent realistic detail he has reproduced the old Benbow tavern where lived young Jim Hawkins and his mother. The coming of Bill Bones, the rascous sea captain, and later of Black Dog, the fight over the sea chest and the capture of the chart showing the location of Capt. Flint's treasure by Jim; the expedition to seek the buried gold; the mutiny; the battles with the pirates at the stockade and the final success—all the absorbing episodes that have made Stevenson's book a delight live vividly on the screen.

In the role of young Jim Hawkins, Shirley Mason gives a more charming performance than any boy actor could hope to offer.

Edith Roberts in "The Triflers," a story of society; a comedy, the International News and a Burton Holmes travel picture will round out the bill.

OPERA HOUSE

L'Union Musicale, one of the recognized musical organizations of New England, most of whose members come from Manchester, N. H., will present that delightful and ever popular comic opera, "The Chimes of Normandy" at the Opera House tonight. It will be sung in French, and should attract a large audience. In other cities where it has been given it has been most enthusiastically received, and no doubt the music lovers of Lowell will turn out in large numbers tonight. The prices of the tickets are 35, 50, 75c and $1. The tickets are now selling at the box office and at Caisse's pharmacy and Turcott's music store in Merrimack street.

LAKEVIEW PARK

You sure do get your money's worth at Lakeview park these days. In addition to Miner-Boyle's unsurpassable dance music and Barney Horan song hits, the management has added Billy Moran, singer of McCarthy and Fisher ballads, such as "Daddy, You've Been a Mother to Me," "Rose of Virginia," and others.

MAKES AIRPLANE TRIP ON HER 87TH BIRTHDAY

BATTLEBORO, Vt., June 2.—Mrs. Abbie D. Harris reached yesterday her 87th birthday and celebrated the occasion by making an airplane flight with her grandson, Fred H. Harris, who recently bought a biplane. They left the Battleboro Retreat flying field shortly after 5 o'clock and were in the air 10 minutes, as had been arranged. Mrs. Harris occupied the front seat and was told by her grandson to raise her hand if she wanted to come down before the 10 minutes were up, but she gave no signal and the machine was taken to an altitude of 3500 feet. "It was wonderful," said Mrs. Harris after returning home, "and I enjoyed every minute of it. I experienced no more ill effects than as though I had been sitting right here in my home."

Mrs. Harris is the widow of Fred H. Harris, who was a contractor and builder and who died 27 years ago. Her grandson, Fred, was an aviator in Florida in the world war. He is a widely known tennis player and was one of the founders of the Dartmouth Outing club.

TWO OVERCOME BY HEAT IN BOSTON

BOSTON, June 2.—June 1 brought with it sweltering mid-summer weather, a maximum temperature of 89, which made yesterday the hottest day since September 8 of last year, when the mercury climbed to 91, and the first two heat prostrations of the year.

The first person in Boston to be prostrated this year was Freeman Crawford, aged 19, of 28 Knoll street, Roslindale, who was overcome while at work on a steamer at the Hoosac Tunnel docks, Charlestown, yesterday. He was removed to the Haymarket, relief hospital.

Mrs. Pierce of 195 Essex street, Melrose was overcome by the heat at Woodlawn cemetery, Everett. The police were notified, and she was taken home in Chief Hill's automobile.

Yesterday wasn't by any means a record hot June 1, for two years ago the first day of June had an equally high temperature, while the record for all June 1s since weather recording in Boston began was 96 in 1873.

BATTERY B MEN ARE MUSTERED IN

With the exception of a few places to be filled by specially qualified men Battery B's quota was filled last night when 14 more men were passed by the medical examiner. All men have been mustered in and are awaiting for the fall when the real work for the members will begin.

Since Lowell is the first city in the state to secure its quota Capt. MacBrayne expects that Battery B will be the first in the state to be fully equipped. For the summer time there will be no drilling and the fall season will open with a big military ball to be held in the armory.

Further arrangements call for a dance every week in the armory and to make that possible the commander hopes to secure sufficient money to lay a hardwood floor in the drill shed.

The Massachusetts armory commission will pay a visit to the Westford street armory soon to consider the advisability of constructing a stable in the rear of the armory. The equipment of the Lowell Battery will depend a great deal upon the quarters which are available at the armory.

Every Woman

Be she working in factory, shop, office or at home, is often a sufferer from pains here or there, from worry, despondency, and frequently suffers from backache. Very often the trouble is in the organs essentially feminine. Worry, sleepless nights, headaches, pains, disorders, irregularities and weaknesses of a distinctly feminine character in a short time bring the dull eye, the "crow's feet," the haggard look, drooping shoulders and the faltering step. To retain the appearance of youth, a woman must retain health. Instead of lotions, powders and paints ask your druggist for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. REV. JAMES GILDAY DEAD

Pastor of Star of the Sea Church at Marblehead Dies Suddenly

A large number of friends in Lowell will be pained to learn of the death of Rev. James Gilday, a native of this city and pastor of the Star of the Sea church at Marblehead, who passed away very suddenly at the rectory in Marblehead yesterday.

Rev. Fr. Gilday had not been in the best of health for the past six weeks, but his death was entirely unexpected.

REV. JAMES GILDAY

ed. He was 62 years old and had been a priest for 35 years.

He had been pastor of the Star of the Sea church for many years and had won a reputation throughout the diocese as a strong and eloquent preacher. Prior to going to Marblehead he had served as assistant pastor at St. Patrick's church, Natick; at the Immaculate Conception church in Everett and shortly after his ordination as curate at Haverhill.

He leaves six brothers, Rev. John Gilday, pastor of St. Patrick's church in South Lawrence; Charles A. Gilday, a Brockton attorney; Henry T. Gilday, an organist in this city; Dr. Frank Gilday of Everett; Owen Gilday of this city and Thomas Gilday in the west; also three sisters, Misses Mary F. and Katherine Gilday and Mrs. John T. Donahue of Lowell.

The funeral will probably be held Saturday and the body will be brought to Lowell for burial.

Proposals for Coal

Sealed proposals addressed to the Middlesex County Commissioners and endorsed "Proposals for Coal" will be received by said commissioners at the Court House, Lowell, until Monday, the 21st day of June, 1920, at 10 o'clock a. m., for a supply of coal to be delivered at the Training School at North Chelmsford, Mass., and at that time will be publicly opened and read.

All bids must be upon blank forms to be obtained at the office of the Commissioners, Court House, East Cambridge, and must give the proposed coal in writing and in figures, and be signed by the bidder with his address.

Each bid is to be accompanied by a certified check for Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) payable to the County of Middlesex, said check to be returned to the bidder unless he fails to execute a contract should it be awarded to him.

All bids will be compared on the basis of the estimated quantities of coal required, which are as follows:

20 tons, more or less, best "New River Coal" or its equal, 2500 pounds to the ton.

20 tons, more or less, best "Lackawanna Broken" or its equal, 2000 pounds to the ton.

20 tons, more or less, best nut stove coal, 2000 pounds to the ton.

The above is to be delivered at the Training School at North Chelmsford at such time and in such quantities as the superintendent may order.

The quantities are approximate only and the Commissioners expressly reserve the right of increasing or diminishing the same.

Specifications and forms of proposal and contract may be obtained at the office of the Commissioners, Court House, East Cambridge, Mass.

The Commissioners reserve the right to reject any or all bids, or accept any bid as they may deem best.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barton

TINGALING, the fairy landlord of the Land-of-Deer-Knows-Where, has his hands quite full, you may imagine. When spring comes, all the animals leave Dreamland (where they spend their winters—all except the birds who go south), and then go to Scrub-Land (to get spring-cleaned), and then come crowding in twos and fours into the Land-of-Deer-Knows-Where to rent houses for the summer months.

I will say of the birds, bless their hearts, that they most always make their own houses, their only demand of Tingaling being that he furnish nice, soft material to work with. But he's often put to, doing that these days, when cotton thread and wool thread are so dear that no one lets any blow out of the windows as he used to, in the land that you and I know about.

TINGALING, THE FAIRY LANDLORD OF THE LAND-OF-DEAR-KNOWS-WHERE, HAS HIS HANDS QUITE FULL

The worst of it is that each creature is very particular about where he goes, for he won't just live in any kind of a house at all. It has to be so and so and so.

Samantha Squirrel has to have a house just so far above the ground; Mrs. Woodchuck has to have one just so far under the ground with a certain number of hallways; and Mrs. Flicker (Mrs. Yellow-Hammer) has to have a house with a certain sized doorway, so un-

But he does the best he can, and for all his troubles he's round and jolly, and jingles like a merry sleigh-bell when he walks, for he always has a great quantity of bells handy. Why, I shall tell you again, for as Nancy and Nick were to learn, Tingaling was not only landlord of the Land-of-Deer-Knows-Where, but he had to keep order as well, a sort of policeman you might say.

Profits Helped Build Our Business

Do you think it's right to save money?

Swift & Company's business has been built up partly by selling capital stock for cash and partly by thrifty saving, putting some of our earnings each year back into the business to increase facilities for production.

That is what most all of us seek to do—save part of our earnings for future usefulness.

It is the way American industries have been built up. It means the least drain on the financial resources of the country.

For the past twenty-four years Swift & Company has made an average profit from all sources of 11.3 per cent on investment (capital and surplus), and 2.3 cents on each dollar of sales—a fraction of a cent per pound. Out of this we have paid dividends and saved something to help us keep pace with a growing country.

HELD ANNUAL OUTING AT CANOE LAKE

Students of Lowell Commercial college put away their books and typewriters and adding machines today and joining hands with members of the faculty journeyed to Canobie Lake park for their annual outing, always a much anticipated feature of pre-graduation days.

A special car filled with some 200 merry-makers left the college in Merrimack square at 9 this morning and an hour later arrived at the beautiful New Hampshire park. Here they met students from the Haverhill Commercial college and the Lawrence Business school and united with them in a program of enjoyment. Cooling breezes from the lake swept away the humidity which those left at home were doomed to suffer during the day and the setting was ideal in every way.

At 10:30 a program of sports, varied in character and including contests for both young men and women, was started. One of the features was a bowling match between two boys and two girls from each of the schools.

At noon a basket luncheon was enjoyed and the features of the afternoon's program included a baseball game between a nine made up of Lowell students and another made up of Lawrence and Haverhill students. Last year the down-river team scored a victory and the Lowellites were out for revenge today. Dancing in the spacious hall at the park was also enjoyed and in this connection there was a prize waltz contest and solo dancing by Miss Smith of Lawrence.

The committee in charge of the affair, representing the Lowell Commercial college, was as follows: James Cohen, chairman; Gladys Ingram, Marjory Sears, Blanche Corcoran, Estelle Ralph, Patrick Welch and Theodore Robarge.

The first armored vessels were built by the French for use in the Crimean war.

WILL PRESIDENT BE PICKED HERE?

CHICAGO is the place H. M. Daugherty, Harding campaign manager, was referring to when he said that 22 men would get together in a room some morning about 2 o'clock, after all the delegates were tired, and pick the republican nominee for president? Senator Boise Penrose has rented the apartment outlined in this picture, at 49 Cedar street, the home of Duncan R. Seaman. Penrose will hold forth here during the convention.

THE CONGESTION OF THE MAILS

Not until the laws relative to the transmission of magazines and periodicals by mail have been changed will the congestion of the mails be removed, in the opinion of Postmaster John F. Meehan. Ever since these laws went into effect, postoffices throughout the country, he says, have become clogged with unprecedented piles of advertising material. The necessity of sorting this stuff and handing it several times delays the delivery of general mail matter to such an extent that people are heard to complain of inefficiency on the part of the carriers. The truth is, however, according to the postmaster, that such huge quantities of publicity matter including thousands of magazines and so many lodge, society and fraternal notices are sent out that the carriers sometimes find it all they can do to handle such matter. The postmaster mentioned one case in which a carrier had to visit the majority of the homes in a certain district, a short time ago. A fraternal society sent out several thousand cards to its members and unfortunately, a great many of them fell to one carrier for delivery. The weight of those cards alone was considerable and besides, they necessitated the carrier's going to hundreds of doors and climbing many more flights of stairs than usual. In that way is the mail service impaired, said the postmaster. Speaking of magazines, the postmaster said that on an average each weighs in the vicinity of a pound.

When a carrier gets a bundle of these to deliver to subscribers on his route, he has a pretty heavy load in his sack. The remedies which the postmaster mentioned for such conditions are first to have magazines delivered by parcel post; secondly, to encourage the custom of buying magazines at news-stands instead of by subscription. The first of course is the more advisable, because the magazines are built mainly upon the number of subscribers who receive each issue and thus become possible customers for their advertising clients. Purchasers of magazines who approach news-stands and buy the magazines which happen to strike their fancy cannot be depended upon by the advertisers or the publishers as constant patrons. For these reasons there would be serious objection on the part of the magazine publishers if they were forced to give up their subscription lists. The proposal that magazines should be diverted to the parcel post, if they become too burdensome for mail carriers, seems to be a possible solution.

"Magazine publishers," said Mr. Meehan, "were originally granted the privileges of the second class mail because their magazines were printed mainly for educational purposes and were thus of great public service. Now, however, the magazines have given such educational matter a secondary place and are mainly the means of selling goods. The small amount of reading matter serves as the vehicle for thrusting upon the public scores of pages of advertising which has increased to such an extent that the weight of the issues of one publication for one year has been added to by several hundred pounds. As a result of the departure from the conditions which existed when the privileges under the second class delivery were granted, delivery of publications has proved to be a losing proposition to the government and has become a serious stumbling block in the way of quick handling and delivery of mail. The publishers have been securing mail delivery at very low rates.

DUSKY 'CHILE' WINS GOLD MEDAL

NEW YORK, June 2.—Against a field of children of all races, Miss Audrey Tripp, colored child here, 3 years and 9 months old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Tripp, was adjudged most nearly perfect child of pre-school age in Manhattan. Audrey was awarded a gold medal. Her favorite pastime is tree climbing.

GEN. MARISCAL TAKEN PRISONER IN MEXICO

MEXICO CITY, June 2.—General Silvestre Mariscal, former governor of Oaxaca, who has been an opponent of the new Mexican government in that state since the fall of the Carranza regime, has been wounded and captured by a revolutionary detachment, according to a message to General Obregon.

General Manuel Pelaez, revolutionary leader, in the state of Tamaulipas, has arrived here and conferred last night with General Obregon.

A numerous staff, including eight generals and about 50 other officers, accompanied General Pelaez, and the entire party is said to be plentifully supplied with gold coin, principally American.

Employees of the park department today began placing plants and flowers in the various parks of the city for the summer season. Geraniums and cannas predominated those that are in bloom for the rest of the summer and there were also many other varieties set in place. The tulips which began blooming several weeks ago are about to be removed.

On the occasion of the seventh anniversary of their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin E. Joy of 18 Dutton street were agreeably surprised Monday evening, when a number of friends called at their home and after showing them with congratulations and best wishes, presented them numerous appropriate gifts. Musical numbers were given and a chicken salad supper was served.

BUSINESS FAIR IN LOCAL SHOE SHOPS

Despite the fact that shoe stores in other cities are curtailing considerably, while others have shut down altogether, the local shops are holding their own at present. It was learned this morning. The local factories are running full time with a full complement of help, but as one official stated this morning, it is not known what the future will bring about.

Business has been very good for shoe shops during the past year, particularly for the local factories, some of which have been forced to operate overtime in order to keep up with the orders on hand, but for the past few weeks all overtime has been stopped. The superintendent of a local shop stated this morning that he believes July will be a quiet month as far as the manufacturing of shoes in Lowell is concerned and that during that month employees of shoe factories in this city will have no trouble in getting vacations.

CONFEREES IN ALL NIGHT SESSION

Complete Agreement on Merchant Marine Bill Finally Reached

Board May Sell Ships to Foreigners if Americans Fail to Buy Them

WASHINGTON, June 2.—Sale of American ships to foreign interests if after diligent effort the shipping board has been unable to dispose of them to Americans, is provided for in the merchant marine bill as finally agreed upon by senate and house conferees after virtually an all night session.

Under the agreement senate provisions providing for a permanent shipping board of seven members were retained, but the senate amendment authorizing the board to set aside annually for the next five years $50,000,000 from proceeds of charters and sales for constructions of new ships was modified so as to provide for a reserve fund of only $25,000,000 annually.

The conferees eliminated senate proposals to limit the sale to foreign interests of ships more than 10 years old and not exceeding 4000 deadweight tons. Both the house and senate provisions were amended to place additional limitations around the board in the sale of ships to foreigners. Under the bill as approved, not less than five members of the board must vote for such sales and the board must state as a part of its records the reasons for the sale.

The bill also would require that 75 per cent. of the stock of companies engaged in coastwise trade be American owned, as well as the majority interest in organizations engaged in foreign trade.

The senate bill would have required coastwise ships to be 100 per cent. American owned and stock in shipping companies engaged in foreign trade 75 per cent. American owned.

HIGH SCHOOL BASEBALL

Lowell and Lawrence Boys Play Ball in Down River City

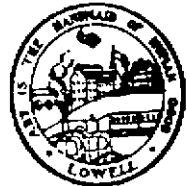

Several hundred high school students left Merrimack square early this afternoon in special cars bound for Lawrence, accompanying the school baseball team which met Lawrence at 3:15 o'clock on the O'Sullivan park diamond. The team was dismissed from school at 12 noon, to prepare for an early start, which was made from Paige st. in auto trucks at 1:30 p. m.

This is the second game between the rival schools this season, Lawrence having won the first class by the score of 3 to 2 after one of the hardest games imaginable. The down-river boys will again face the shoots of Fred Ordway today and with a fair amount of hitting support the locals should knock up the series and make necessary a third and deciding game.

SAYS "WETS" ARE FAILED TO FILE WITH PALMER QUESTIONNAIRES

Charges That His Campaign Conducted With Open Appeal to Wet Interests

McAdoo's Philadelphia Manager Makes Charges Before Senate Committee

WASHINGTON, June 2.—Charges that the campaign for the nomination of Atty. Gen. Palmer as democratic candidate for the presidency had been conducted in Pennsylvania with an open appeal to the distillery and brewery interests in the state, were made today before the senate investigating committee by Eugene C. Bonnellwell, of Philadelphia.

Mr. Bonnellwell who distributed stickers during the primary campaign seeking the nomination of W. G. McAdoo, said that saloons and bonded warehouses in some parts of the state were now running "wide open" and that this was proceeding under the eyes of department of justice and prohibition enforcement officers of the federal government appointed "with Mr. Palmer's visa."

The witness charged that the Palmer campaign in Pennsylvania had been a "ghastly and debasing degradation" of law. He added that the campaign he conducted for Mr. McAdoo had been entirely the work of himself and his colleagues and against the specific personal refusal of Mr. McAdoo to allow his name to be used.

DIVORCE CASES HEARD

Lowell Overseas Veteran Said Wife Deserted Him—Other Cases

Judge Flint in the superior court this morning took under advisement the petition of Frank L. Marr, a department store manager of Everett, on the ground of desertion, for a divorce from his wife, Florence V. Marr, who is now living in Japan.

Mr. Marr, appearing as a witness in his own behalf, testified that he was married at Bridgeton, Me., in 1910, and that later he moved to Somerville, where his wife opened a dressmaking establishment in Davis square. Later the establishment was moved to Massachusetts ave., Boston. After entering business, the witness said, his wife began to remain away from home, staying at her dressmaking establishment more and more, until she made her home there altogether. His wife, he said, had refused to return home when he appealed to her to do so. In answer to a letter from him, the witness said, she sent a list of goods belonging to her that she wanted, and these were afterwards given to her sister. The witness said he was 63 years old.

"Why do you want a divorce after living with your wife 10 years?" asked Judge Flint.

"I want to be free," responded the witness.

"Do you expect to marry again?"

"Yes."

Veteran Seeks Divorce

Henry Leslie Underwood, a Lowell overseas veteran, asking for a divorce on account of desertion from Florence E. Underwood, testified that he was married in Pelham in May, 1916, and later came to this city to live. He said that he returned home one Saturday night and handed over his pay envelope to his wife and that she went out to buy food for supper. He testified that he did not see her again for several days, when he met her on the street and asked her why she had not returned home. She replied,

INVESTIGATION OF 5000 CASES IN MASSACHUSETTS BEGUN BY FEDERAL OFFICERS TODAY

Officials Act to Clean up Records Before Draft Law Becomes Inoperative

BOSTON, June 2.—Investigation of the cases of nearly 5000 Massachusetts men who did not return draft questionnaires or otherwise failed to comply with the requirements of the selective service act during the war was begun today by agents of the department of justice. The investigation was ordered from Washington, officials desiring to clean up all records before the draft act becomes inoperative on June 7. The agents of the department will report on each case to United States Attorney Boynton who will determine whether arrests shall be made.

AMERICAN WOOLEN CO.'S MILLS TO CURTAIL

BOSTON, June 2.—A four days a week schedule for the mills of the American Woolen Co., effective immediately, was announced today by the company. The mills will be closed from Thursday night until Monday of each week. Unsatisfactory and uncertain conditions throughout the country due largely to railroad congestion was given as the reason for the curtailment.

A statement issued at the president's office said: "Because of general unsatisfactory conditions prevailing throughout the country, due largely to railroad congestion, the American Woolen Co., is compelled to curtail production and will until conditions change operate four days a week." The American Woolen Co. employs 35,000 operatives in its 50 mills in New England, New York and Pennsylvania. A 15 per cent. wage increase for all of these employees became effective yesterday.

MANCHESTER, N. H., June 2.—The Ameskeag Manufacturing Co. today posted notices of a curtailment in working hours in its worsted department, affecting about 3500 employees. The curtailment virtually amounts to a four day week in this department. The policy of merchants not to buy manufactured goods under the prevailing high prices was given as a reason for the partial shut down.

PAGEANT ON SOUTH COMMON

Cast for Big Historical Presentation Will Include More Than 1800 People

City's Earliest History Vividly Portrayed—Music One of Many Features

For the first time in the history of Lowell, the city's progress from the days of 1620 to the present year, will be presented in compact and attractive form to the populace as a whole when the historical and picturesque pageant will be given on the South common next Saturday afternoon.

Approximately 1800 men, women and children will take part and the presentation not only will be particularly interesting, but decidedly enlightening to thousands of people who have only vague ideas and knowledge of the earliest settlers, the establishment of industry that has developed to an extent to give the community world prominence and the actual growth of the city to its status of today.

Without exception the pageant is one of the most pretentious undertakings ever planned in the city and has entailed a bewildering mass of preparatory detail. A competent and energetic committee, headed by Mrs. Julian B. Keyes has efficiently handled the arrangements as mapped out and suggested by the Girls' Community Service club, under whose auspices the pageant is being held.

The South common, with its sloping banks and wealth of trees is an admirable spot for the staging of the pageant. Today it is garbed in its most attractive summer verdure and only fair weather is needed on Saturday to make the scenes reproduced there of wondrous beauty and immeasurable historical interest. Then again, the common is a most fitting place, for it is historic ground, hardly a few feet distant from the actual spot John Elliot met with and preached to the Indians. A tablet marking this spot hangs within the Eliot Union church at the top of the hill in Summer street. What will the thousands of people

WILL CANCEL CONTRACT

City Council Releases West Roxbury Co. From Work on First Street Highway

The municipal council voted this morning to release the West Roxbury Trap Rock company from a contract signed last year for the construction of the First street highway along the Merrimack river.

Inasmuch as plans for the construction of the highway have been changed since the contract was originally let and the work is now temporarily held up pending an adjustment of minor matters connected with the work to the satisfaction of the highway commission, City Engineer Stephen Kearney told the council that he deemed it a move in the direction of economy to have the contract cancelled so that the West Roxbury firm will not have an opportunity to recover damages from the city.

This firm now has a foreman waiting to continue the work but cannot make any move until the city gives the word as to just what changes in the original plans it contemplates. Two-

TRAFFIC BUREAU FOR LOWELL

Chamber of Commerce Special Committee Will Make Recommendation

Plan Also Includes the Employment of an Efficient Manager

The preliminary steps toward the establishment of a traffic bureau in Lowell, to be operated by the Lowell chamber of commerce, were taken last night at a meeting of the special freight and transportation committee, when it was unanimously voted to recommend such a bureau to the board of directors.

It may be said that the action was considerable above the "preliminary" class inasmuch as the matter has been informally discussed and agitated for some time and the special committee was fairly certain that the directors would approve of the recommendation and give it immediate attention and action.

In addition to the creation of such a bureau a traffic manager will be secured, serving on full time under salary from the chamber of commerce. He must of necessity be a man thoroughly conversant with railroad freight and transportation problems as they affect shippers, large and small.

The bureau will have at its command, for immediate dispensation all possible knowledge concerning railroad rates, routes, embargoes, demurrage, securing of cars and movement of same. The manager will work in conjunction with local railroad officials, and it is believed he will be of inestimable help to local shippers.

Among other things it has been pointed out that at the present time local shippers are unable to ascertain rates west of the Mississippi river except through Boston offices, and also that it is difficult to learn rates from points to Lowell except from officials in the general offices of the road.

The committee which met and took action last night has B. L. Benoit of the Bay State Cotton Corp., as chairman, a man well versed in transportation problems and who has done a considerable amount of work in the preliminary plans for the installation of a bureau. A number of applications for the position of traffic manager have been received, but as yet no one has been secured.

TRAIN DERAILED ON EDGE OF BANK

Buffalo Express Bound to Boston Wrecked East of North Grafton

Entire Train Narrowly Escaped Going Down 20-foot Embankment

WORCESTER, June 2.—The Buffalo express bound to Boston on the Boston & Albany railroad, jumped the track east of North Grafton today, jolting along over the ties for about 200 yards. A broken truck on one of the eight cars is blamed for the accident.

After the locomotive broke away from the coaches it continued 75 yards along the ties. The train was running on the middle track and jumped over onto an outside set that runs along the edge of a 20-foot embankment, the entire train having a narrow escape from going down this. The coaches were all of steel and while many of the ends were smashed in they saved the passengers from serious injury. The accident tied up traffic several hours.

BOSTON, June 2.—A statement issued by the Boston & Albany railroad regarding the derailment of the Buffalo express near North Grafton said that so far as known, no one was injured. The passengers, numbering 75, were taken to Framingham on a following train and after they had been provided with breakfast, were transferred to Boston.

The cause of the accident has not been determined, according to the statement. Business of the railroad will not be interrupted except through the necessity of using a siding to pass around the derailed train.

At Least 6 Killed in Explosion

PITTSBURGH, June 2.—At least six men were killed by an explosion in the coal shaft of the Ontario Gas Coal Co., near Cokesburg, Pa., today. The men were buried under tons of earth, and the foreman in charge of the work said he would not be able to tell the exact number of dead until the bodies had been recovered.

Fined $55,000 for Profiteering

SYRACUSE, N. Y., June 2.—The John A. Roberts Corporation of Utica, dealers in wearing apparel, was today fined $55,000 by Federal Judge Harland B. Howe, following its conviction of profiteering on 11 counts.

To Repeal War Time Legislation

WASHINGTON, June 2.—By unanimous vote the house judiciary committee today ordered out a resolution repealing all war time emergency legislation excepting the Lever food control act, trading with the enemy act, and the District of Columbia rent profiteering measure. Chairman Volstead told the committee that he would attempt to have the house adopt the resolution before adjournment Saturday. House action, he said, would be attempted under suspension of the rules, which would permit only 40 minutes of debate.

Four Injured in Train Wreck

BANGOR, Me., June 2.—Four men injured in the train wreck on the Maine Central four miles from Lincoln village, just before midnight Tuesday, were brought to this city today and taken to the Eastern Maine General hospital. All other passengers and trainmen were able to proceed to their homes. No cause for the cars leaving the rails can be assigned.

Polish Troops Assume Offensive

WARSAW, June 1.—Polish troops have turned to the offensive between Borzow and Bobruisk, on the center of the front which is under attack by the Russian Bolsheviks and on May 27 occupied the line of the Beresina river, according to an official statement issued today. The spirit shown by the Poles in the fighting has "blocked the enemy's offensive plan," the statement says. Counter attacks against the Bolshevik line on May 30 in the Plesieniez section were successful, it is declared, and several hundred prisoners and a number of machine guns were captured. South of Bobruisk Polish raids have resulted in the taking of prisoners and of war materials.

To Prevent Sugar Shortage in Cuba

HAVANA, June 1.—The Havana Chamber of Commerce today petitioned the Cuban government to take necessary action so that 400,000 sacks of sugar of the present crop be retained on the island and withheld from export. The chamber of commerce explained that unless this measure is taken the shortage of sugar in Cuba will be very acute.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—The supreme court held yesterday that federal constitutional amendments cannot be submitted for ratification to a referendum vote in states having referendum provisions in their constitutions.

The court declared inoperative the Ohio state constitutional referendum amendment, insofar as it effects ratification of federal amendments.

Ohio supreme court decrees dismissing injunction proceedings brought by George S. Hawks of Cincinnati to prevent submission of the prohibition and woman suffrage amendments to the voters were set aside by the court.

New Method Removes
Superfluous Hair Roots!

Have you "tried everything" for that annoying hairy or fuzzy growth and about to give up in despair? Well, there's just one thing more to try, and you must try it, because it is the one home treatment that reaches the very root of such troubles. The new process is not to be compared at all with electrolysis, electrical or any other method you've ever heard of. It is different because it actually removes roots and all you see the roots with your own eyes.

Just get a stick of phaeoline from your druggist, follow the simple instructions, and you will be delighted with the result. Phaeoline is odorless, non-irritating, and can be used with entire safety—you could even eat it with impunity. It is an instantaneous method.—Adv.

"The act of ratification by the states derives its authority from the federal constitution, to which the states and people have alike assented. Any other view might lead to endless confusion in the manner of ratification of federal amendments. The choice of means of ratification was wisely withheld from conflicting action in the several states."

Massachusetts Legal

BOSTON, June 2.—Massachusetts "dry" leaders interpreted as a highly important victory the United States supreme court's finding yesterday that federal constitutional amendments cannot be submitted for ratification to a referendum vote of the people in states having referendum provisions in their constitutions.

Dry leaders held it to establish the fact that the 18th amendment was legally adopted.

It wiped from the slate "one of the three main attacks on prohibition," as outlined by Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel of the Anti-Saloon League of America, in his recent visit to Boston.

"In view of the strenuous contest which the liquor forces made in trying to assert the right of referendum in several states, this is an important opinion and a victory for us," said Orville S. Poland, counsel for the Massachusetts Anti-Saloon League.

"Practically narrow prohibition contests down to two broad issues: Is the 18th amendment constitutional? And is the Volstead act constitutional?"

"I never imagined for a moment that the supreme court of the United States would upset the means by which all the other 17 federal amendments have been adopted, or would think of allowing Ohio to write into the constitution of the United States its idea as to what the federal constitution means. We had fully expected an opinion of this character."

"50c" Priced

BOSTON, June 2.—Mrs. Charles Sumner Bird of Walpole, president of the Massachusetts Woman Suffrage association, yesterday characterized the decision of the United States supreme court as eminently satisfactory to the suffragists.

"We had not been greatly concerned regarding this question," said Mrs. Bird, "for we had felt that the decision must be what it has proved and had gone ahead upon that assumption. We did not want a referendum vote, with all the expense, bother and delay which such a thing entails. Now we have only to wait until the 36th state has ratified the suffrage amendment, when 3,000,000 women in this country will be released."

LOCAL CLUB HEARS

BROCKTON PASTOR

That a "definite, concerted attempt" is being made on the part of those who will not have prohibition, to defeat the Volstead act and nullify the federal amendment, was asserted by Rev. Warren K. Landers of Brockton, at the last meeting of the season of the Lowell Congregational club, held last evening at the Highland church.

The speaker was introduced by Rev. A. G. Lyon, who called the meeting to order after a supper had been served by the ladies of the church.

"Ethics of the Back Yard" was the subject of Mr. Landers' address. It is unfortunate, he said, that a man should spend much of his time shining up his front door plate when his back yard is a menace to the health of the community and an offense to the artistic sense of all who are compelled to look upon it. For these conditions there should be a definite remedy. To foreigners coming here America stands for liberty—they do not see our real problems until they get into our back yard.

Then there is the problem of making the country "dry," the speaker said.

We know of the tremendous sales of Jamaica ginger. We have heard of the recent rulling of government officials, that physicians may have only

400 prescription blanks at a time. Not all doctors, unfortunately, are possessed of consciences which all men need very much to have to meet the necessities of the hour. The liquor problem is among the serious menaces of the American back yard.

Then there is the industrial problem, the speaker continued. There are two kinds of persons connected with the labor question—persons of the type of

Samuel Gompers and of Governor Calvin

Coolidge. To the latter the rights of the public are of very great consequence. If I understand the problem, the speaker said, it is to find a way by which the rights defended by our government shall be accepted within the circle of the laboring people.

The speaker referred to the educational problem as it is affected by boys and girls who leave school at 15 or 16 years of age to go to work, and referred to the necessity for the work of Americanization.

"We have in our churches," the speaker said in closing, "our parlor

Bolsheviks, our ouija board devotees and I suppose, even in Lowell, some who would not be averse to a commercialized Sunday. What are we to do to demonstrate our faith in the old-fashioned beliefs? What sort of city is Lowell to be for the next 25 years?

Are we discharging, acts of all, our own obligations, and what kind of a city are we to pass on to the next generation?"

During the evening solos were sung

by Miss Geneva Hanson and Clifford

Hall, Miss Clara M. Fenton acting as accompanist.

Louis Alexander, presented the report of the secretary and treasurer of the club for the past year. The reports showed that the organization has 117 members, that all of its outstanding debts have been cancelled, and that it has a balance in the bank.

Other speakers of the evening were

FOR G. O. P. CONVENTION

Claims of Contesting Delegates Continue to Occupy Attention of Committee

CHICAGO, June 2.—Claims of contesting delegations from Florida and Georgia continued today to occupy the attention of the republican national committee. The prospect of night sessions to clean up the state before the convention meets next Tuesday seems to be growing.

Political forces are gathering slowly here and, while the pre-convention circle has its usual line of gossip and prediction, no political leader of recognized importance has up to this time been willing to attach his name to a definite prediction of whom the convention will name as its candidate or when it is likely to do it. The end of the week with the probable adjournment of congress, however, will bring all the national leaders to Chicago and by Saturday or Sunday convention platforms are expected to take definite form.

Safe Place Duty

Representatives of the militant suffragists are on the ground preparing to picket the convention hall to enforce their demand for a platform declaration calling on the states which have not ratified the woman suffrage amendment to do so at once. The national committee yesterday by unanimous vote called upon all republican states to act promptly on the ratification.

Johnson Forces to Parade

The Johnson forces are counting on a burst of speed with the arrival of Senator Johnson here tomorrow. A street parade and demonstration have been arranged.

Senator Harding is coming Thursday also. General Wood is here and at his headquarters at Fort Sheridan, and Governor Lowden already is here. Thus after tomorrow four of the presidential candidates will be on the ground conferring with their forces in person and a more definite line of pre-convention speculation probably will be one of the first results.

Unpledged Solid Power

In the coming convention the uninstructed delegates are holding the balance of power and already plans for sounding them out are being discussed. A caucus of the uninstructed some time after Sunday is one of the plans being canvassed.

Such discussion of the platform plank as is going on among the national committeemen seems to indicate that a majority feel that the prohibition question may be regarded as one not necessary to be included, because the issue has been written into the constitution and has become the law of the land.

Treaty and League Planks

Many committeemen feel that the suffrage question is a parallel one in many respects, because it is awaiting ratification. There seems to be an agreement of opinion that the Mexican plank will follow the pronouncement of four years ago, in which the democratic administration's policy was denounced, and as regards the peace treaty and the League of Nations, the plank adopted by the Indiana state convention may serve as a nucleus for the plank in the national platform.

The selection of a permanent chairman seems to have made no progress in the last three or four days. There is now less talk of the selection of former Senator Beveridge of Indiana and more talk of an agreement on Senator McCormick of Illinois.

The fight for a platform declaration by the republican party for full independence for the Philippines was taken up today by a delegation from the islands headed by Jaime de Veyra.

"By the Jones law of Aug. 25, 1916," declared Mr. de Veyra, "the Philippines were promised their independence as soon as stable government could be established on the islands. The Philippines have that stable government today. America's official representative in the Philippines testifies to its existence."

JUNE 14 FLAG DAY

STATE HOUSE, Boston, June 2.—Gov. Coolidge issued yesterday the following proclamation designating Monday, June 14, as Flag day:

"The Commonwealth of Massachusetts, By His Excellency Calvin Coolidge, Governor.

"While the flag of America has become the oldest in design it remains the newest in symbol. In certain fundamental principles it represents there can be no advance for there is no beyond. It is the flag of a people who have arrived. It must be the flag of a people who have the determination to remain. It stands for order and liberty, for freedom of the human hand and the human mind, free speech, free press, free church, it means that property and life and honor shall be inviolate and it recognizes the duty of the people to protect each other in the security of these rights and that all experience and all reason demonstrate that the whole source of such protection is in government according to law. Unless it be the symbol of the law administered by a government which has the disposition and the strength to be supreme, all the meaning and the glory of the flag fade away and all reverence for it perishes. It is time to realize that all those who disregard the law or resist the authority of government are disloyal to the flag. Whatever their motive or their station they seek the destruction of all the flag represents."

"That the people of the commonwealth, in accordance with a holy admonition, may think of these things, that they may renew their determination to support and defend these most sacred rights, it has been provided that there shall each year be designated by solemn proclamation a Flag day."

"Now, therefore, by that authority, I, Calvin Coolidge, governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, hereby proclaim Monday, June 14, 1920, and direct its observance by flying our national flag, by appropriate exercises in the public schools and among the people that we may come to a fuller realization of our public duties, a renewed determination to maintain the rights that the increased glory of our citizenship may be reflected in the increased glory of our flag."

"Given at the executive chamber, in Boston, this first day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and forty-fourth."

"By His Excellency, the Governor, ALBERT T. LANGTRY, Secretary of the Commonwealth. God Save the Commonwealth of Massachusetts."

URGENT INTELLIGENT CO-OPERATION

OF THE CHURCHES WITH NEWSPAPERS

CLEVELAND, June 2.—Reports of the publicity and community commissions were presented at today's session of the church and community convention of the commission on federations of the federal council of churches of Christ in America.

The founder of Christianity would have gotten along with reporters famously, the report of the commission on religious publicity states.

"Had there been newspapers in Jerusalem" the report continues, "every newspaperman would have protested in his heart against the crucifixion, whether the policy of the paper had allowed him to protest publicly or not."

The report pleaded for the intelligent co-operation of the churches with the newspapers for the sake of presenting to the public the larger work for the religious organization but without glaring publicity of the type "formerly employed by patent medicine companies."

ACCEPTS WILSON'S WAGE OFFER

WASHINGTON, June 2.—Anthracite miners and operators formally announced yesterday acceptance of President Wilson's offer for the appointment of a commission to decide their wage controversy.

Sec. Wilson will notify the president at once and the appointment of an anthracite coal commission is expected to follow in a few days.

Will Cancel Contract

thirds of the work was completed, before agitation to have a playground located in that section was renewed, and the West Roxbury Co. will be paid for this amount. As soon as the state authorities complete their preliminary work in connection with the relocation of the highway along the river bank, a new contract will be let to the lowest bidder.

The council also voted this morning to give permission to the Bay State Cotton Corp. to install an underground electric duct for heating purposes in Marginal street, providing it pays the expenses of the services of an additional wire inspector. Otherwise, this morning's meeting was routine in character.

Meeting in Detail

The meeting was called at 10.45. Commissioner Murphy was absent, but came in later.

A hearing was held on the petition of the Bay State Cotton corporation for permission to cross Marginal street with an electrical duct line. The city solicitor had investigated the matter at the request of the mayor and the city engineer had given it his approval. The order giving the requested permission was then read and adopted. The order provided that the corporation shall pay for the services of an extra wire inspector to supervise the work and that the city shall be indemnified against any damage which may result from the installation of the duct. The conduit must be completed within 60 days.

Commissioner Marchand asked if another wire inspector would have to be appointed for the work. Mayor Thompson said that it would probably be up to the engineering department to decide that City Engineer Kearney was present and said that he believed a man should be on the job to supervise the work.

First Street Highway

The mayor then brought up the matter of the first street boulevard. He said that there were many minor matters that must be taken care of before work could go forward, among them the establishment of the line of the Merrimack river.

The president of the West Roxbury Trap Rock Co., Mr. Welch, who is constructing the new highway, is anxious to have some decision as to the intention of the city to continue or to stop the work.

The mayor said that a conference had been held with state authorities and it was their opinion that the present contract between the city and West Roxbury Trap Rock Co., made in 1919, be discharged and the contractor paid to date.

Commissioner Murphy came in at this point. He said that the question was which was to be considered more advantageous, starting work on the playground or on the highway. He said he believed it would be years before the site would be in shape for a playground and that the high school students might be just as well accommodated at Washington park.

It was his personal belief, he said, that the city should go ahead on the highway. People who travel back and forth must be considered, he said.

The mayor said that even after the city had completed its part of the work, travel would be held up until the state does its work. He believed that the site should be held open for a playground and that it would be ample for high school athletics.

Commissioner Marchand said he would like to have the matter held over for a week.

The mayor believed immediate action should be taken so that the contractor wouldn't have an opportunity to charge the city for time during which he is doing no work. He believed Mr. Welch was entitled to some answer as to whether the city planned to go ahead. Otherwise, he would be held up in the best season of the year and would have a right to recover damages.

Commissioner Marchand asked how much money was left from the appropriation for the contract. Mr. Kearney said that there would remain some $10,000 or $12,000 if the contractor were released now.

The mayor then moved that the city pay the West Roxbury Trap Rock Co. for its work to date and that the contract be discharged.

Commissioner Murphy said that if he thought the playground question was going to interfere so tremendously with the road, he would never have voted for the re-location of the road. City Engineer Kearney believed that the old contract should be discharged. Commissioner Salmon seconded the

PRINTING NEW
POLL TAX BILLS

City Treasurer Fred H. Bourke has given an order for the printing of 35,000 poll tax bills for 1920 and he expects to have them in the hands of all males eligible to pay poll taxes within a month, he said today.

The bills present a slightly different appearance this year from those of former years. The words "war bonus" are added to the accustomed phrase, "state, county and poll" and an explanation is made that the state law requires that each male over 20 years old shall pay an extra tax of $3 every year for the next four years in order to furnish revenue for the payment of the $100 bonus granted by the state to those who served in the world war.

At the present time clerks of the assessors' department are preparing material for the bills and Mr. Bourke hopes to have them ready by July 1 at the latest. The usual period of 30 days will be given before interest will be charged.

PRESIDENT'S SALARY TO REOPEN RUBBER EXEMPT FROM TAX PLANT TOMORROW

WASHINGTON, June 2.—Provisions of the war revenue act requiring the president and all federal judges to pay an income tax on their salaries were declared unconstitutional yesterday by the supreme court in a 5-to-4 decision.

Under the act the president paid on his salary of $75,000 a year approximately $16,000 in taxes. Revenues already collected under the invalid provisions will under the court's decision be refunded by the treasury.

The supreme court's decision was on appeals by Federal District Judge Walter Evans of Louisville, Ky., from lower court decrees dismissing a suit brought by him to recover taxes involuntarily paid. He contended that the federal constitution prohibited judges' salaries being diminished during continuance in office.

Justice Vandewater, who rendered the majority opinion, held that the section of the revenue act violated constitutional provisions prohibiting the diminution of such salaries. Such a tax, he argued, could be gradually increased until the entire salary was taken. The majority opinion held, however, that a federal judge was not exempt from tax on his private income or on his property.

Justice Holmes rendered a dissenting opinion in which Justice Brandeis concurred. He declared that no reason existed why federal judges should be exempted from the income tax.

The majority opinion required about an hour for delivery and was one of the longest rendered by the court in recent years.

COLLAR PRICES TO COME DOWN

NEW YORK, June 2.—Cheaper collars were promised here yesterday, when representatives of one of the largest collar manufacturing corporations of Troy, N. Y., announced that wholesale prices had been cut to retailers throughout the country to sell its product at 25 cents each. They now are retailing as high as 35 cents.

No reduction in wages or overhead charges, but simply cheaper cost of materials, have brought the lowered price, it was explained.

BRISTOL, R. I., June 2.—Preparations for resuming full operations tomorrow at the plant of the National India Rubber Co., closed a month because of a strike, were made today by factory officials and national guard officers in charge of the troops which have been on duty since the rioting of last Friday.

Notices announcing the re-opening of the plant, which normally employed about 4500 persons, representing nearly one-third of the population, had been conspicuously posted in all sections of the town.

As a further means of getting word to the employees as to the company's attitude, it was understood that officials had under consideration the calling together of the factory council, a body of workers through which the company in the past had dealt with its employees.

Leaders of the strike movement reiterated their confidence that the test of strength developing with the re-opening of the factory would show that the original body of strikers, numbering about 1000, has been almost doubled and that so many would refuse to return to work that operations could not be continued. Company officials on the other hand declared that many employees had expressed a wish to return. Special precautions will be taken to prevent any demonstration.

About 50 per cent. of the office force was on duty again today. They were escorted to the factory by a military guard, without any sign of disorder.

SPECIALISTS ON THROAT, NOSE AND EAR IN CONVENTION AT CAMBRIDGE

CAMBRIDGE, June 2.—Specialists in the treatment of the throat, nose and ear, met here today for the annual convention of the American Laryngological, Rhinological and Otolological Society. The convention will continue Friday with numerous business and scientific sessions at Harvard Medical school. Dr. Harris P. Mosher of Boston is president of the society.

Black, green, brown and white amber, as well as the yellow variety, is sometimes found.

MATRIMONY

Mr. John D. Carney, formerly of Keene, N. H., veteran of the world war and a prominent employee of the B. & M. car shops and Miss Edwilda Fortin, a popular young lady of the Sacred Heart parish, were united in marriage at the Sacred Heart parochial residence yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by Rev. William Mahan, O.M.I. Mr. Harold C. Chase of Concord, N. H., who was in the same military outfit with the groom for two years overseas, acted as best man and Miss Isabelle Carney, of Keene, N. H., a sister of the groom, was the bridesmaid. The bride looked charming in a gown of white crepe de chine with head trimmings and a picture hat to match. The bridesmaid was becomingly attired in pink embroidered satin. She also wore a picture hat. The bride carried white roses, while the bridesmaid carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Following the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene P. Sullivan, 51 Maple street, where a reception was held and dinner served to members of the immediate families. Mr. A. Lydon catered.

The dining room as well as the parlor was beautifully decorated with pink and white and the national colors. An informal musical program was carried out, while dancing specialties were given by Master John and Miss Margaret Higgins, cousins of the bride. Miss Loretta Sullivan presided at the piano.

Mr. and Mrs. Carney were the recipients of many beautiful wedding gifts. The happy couple left for Boston late yesterday afternoon, where they boarded the boat for Portland, Me. Later they took the train for Canada. After visiting Montreal, Quebec and other places of interest they will return to Lowell where they will be home to their friends at 125 Carleton street after July 1.

Lowell-Fortin

A pretty wedding took place this morning when Mr. Leon L. Leclair and Miss Edwilda Fortin, two well known young people of this city, were united in the bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed at a nuptial mass celebrated at 8 o'clock at St. Joseph's rectory by Rev. L. N. Bachand, O.M.I. The bride wore white tricolette and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley. The witnesses were Messrs. Alexis Lamarré and Napoleon Desmarais. At the close of the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. John A. Fortin, 115 Ford street. Mr. and Mrs. Leclair, who were the recipients of numerous wedding gifts will leave this evening on the 9:15 o'clock train for Three Rivers, Que. and upon their return in two weeks they will make their home at 115 Ford street.

DENIES PROPOSING ADMISSION OF VATICAN TO LEAGUE

ROME, June 2.—Reports published late last week, that A. J. Balfour, former British secretary of state for foreign affairs, had proposed the admission of the Vatican to the League of Nations, are denied in an official statement printed by the Osservatore Romano. It is also said that "no other person" has made any such proposals.

HOUSE AGAIN REFUSES
BONUS TO YEOMEN (F)

BOSTON, June 2.—The house yesterday refused to concur with the senate in voting to extend the soldiers and sailors' bonus to the women and girls who had war jobs and were rated as yeomen (F). Persistent lobbying by women in the house corridors, even while the debate was in progress, increased the number of representatives for the bill from 50 on the first call to 52 for a motion to reconsider the vote whereby the bill was defeated.

Mr. Reading of Cambridge recalled the scenes at the state house when a similar bill was before the legislature. There had been no change in the situation since last year and hence no reason why the girls should be given the gratuity.

George F. Murphy could see no harm in the corridor lobbying by the girls. He thought they should be given the money. Mr. Steele of Brockton, however, called the proposal "ridiculous," saying that everyone of the girls had had a better job in the war than the one she voluntarily left. Mr. Doyle of New Bedford was against the bill, but he paid a grateful compliment to the lobbyists, saying they were "as nice people as ever lobbied anybody."

Mr. Brimblecom of Newton, in charge of the bill, thought the girls were treated unjustly last year and that the legislature should make amends.

A rising vote on passing the bill to be engrossed gave 50 yeas and 78 nays. An effort to get a recall at this stage failed.

NORMAL SCHOOL GRADUATION

Frank W. Wright, director of the division of education, will deliver the principal address at the annual graduation exercises of the State Normal school in Broadway to be held Friday afternoon, June 18. It was announced today, John J. Mahoney, principal of the school, who has been engaged in Americanization work under state auspices for the past year, will present diplomas.

The Year Book credits 35,065 trotters with records of a mile in 2.30 or better and 25,970 pacers in the 2.25 flat.

SONG FESTIVAL AT THE OPERA HOUSE

Indications point to a most enjoyable entertainment at the Opera House next Sunday afternoon and evening when the Crescent Hill association, the well known Centralville organization, will present its song festival. A successful rehearsal was held last evening under the direction of Charles D. Slattery. All the favorites who appeared in the recent show staged by the organization in Association hall will be seen and heard Sunday and there will be many newcomers in addition.

The Crescent Hill double male quartet will be heard in a brace of new songs and a feature of the entertainment will be a high class photoplay. In addition an orchestra of nine pieces will furnish music. Tickets for both performances are now on sale at the following places: Noonan's drug store, corner Bridge and First streets; Webster's, corner Third and Bridge streets; Carter & Sherburne Co., Merrimack square; Gallagher's confectionery store, 262 Merrimack street and Campbell's, Tower's corner.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

By Theatres' Own Press Agents

THE OWL THEATRE

Serapy bear cubs, lions, otters, deer, porcupines, wolves and wild cats, a dog pledged by fate to fight his greatest battle for a girl—that is the setting for "Back to God's Country," a James Oliver Curwood story put into film by First National, which is to play at the Owl theatre for the last three days of the week, beginning tomorrow. It's hot, just step into the Owl, for the scenes of the frozen north, actually taken inside the rim of the Arctic circle, where the leading man lost his life, will make you feel cool. And remember that in selecting the Owl, you are picking a house where quality is the watchword, and not quantity, though at that, there's nothing stingy about the size of the bills there.

In addition to this big feature, there will be a Judge Brown story, about the Denver man who makes life worth living for boys, also a Comediant feature, the different kind of comedy, an episode of "The Lost City" and a news reel.

"Back to God's Country" is a different kind of film. It is not the commonplace picture which depends upon the eternal triangle of lavish interior sets for its attractions. It is the eternal story of human nature in the raw state. And in this picture, animal nature in the raw is also depicted. Away up in the north is Wani the Killer, snapping with blood-thirsty jaws at the brutal whips of the traders over the mangled forms of dog enemies about him. To this martyr of human brutes comes the promise of delivery through a young white girl, Dolores Lebeau. Wapi reads the trouble in her eyes—a husbanding, a father dead by this same brute's hand, a post trader in league to get the white girl—and Wapi comes through. It is about such massive outline that James Oliver Curwood built his great story. Nell Shipman, champion swimmer, is the star, and does some of her wonderful water stunts in this film, such as swimming the perilous rapids. It was as she emerged from a stream in all her beauty that the eyes of Rydal the jackal of the north saw her and only a huge brown bear the friend of Dolores, thwarted his fiendish plan. If you have seen "The River's End," you will want to see this. If you haven't, now is the time to get acquainted with real quality pictures.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE
Final performances of "Everywoman," the noted screen classic of fashion and beauty, will be given at the Merrimack Square theatre this evening and tomorrow afternoon there will be an entire change of program.

The feature for the week-end will be "Treasure Island." Robert Louis Stevenson's most noted work. This bold buccaners of the book will live again in the remarkable photoplay production and Maurice Tourneur again achieves such triumphs as greeted his productions of "The Life Line" and "Victory."

The famous producer has retained on the screen all the romance and villainy of the Spanish Main that Stevenson knew so well how to portray. In excellent realistic detail he has reproduced the old Benbow tavern where lived young Jim Hawkins and his mother. The coming of Bill Bones, the cautious sea captain, and later of Black Dog, the fight over the sea chest and the capture of the chart showing the location of Capt. Flint's treasure by Jim; the expedition to seek the buried gold; the mutiny, the battles with the pirates at the stockade and the final success—all the absorbing episodes that have made Stevenson's book a delight live vividly on the screen.

In the role of young Jim Hawkins, Shirley Mason gives a more charming performance than any boy actor could hope to offer.

Edith Roberts in "The Triflers," a story of society; a comedy, the International News and a Burton Holmes travel picture will round out the bill.

OPERA HOUSE
L'Union Musicale, one of the recognized musical organizations of New England, most of whose members come from Manchester, N. H., will present that delightful and ever popular comic opera, "The Chimes of Normandy," at the Opera House tonight. It will be sung in French, and should attract a large audience. In other cities where it has been given it has been most enthusiastically received, and no doubt the music lovers of Lowell will turn out in large numbers tonight. The prices of the tickets are $5, $3, $2, and $1. The tickets are now selling at the box office and at Calne's pharmacy and Turcol's music store in Merrimack street.

LAKEVIEW PARK
You sure do get your money's worth at Lakeview park these days. In addition to Minnie-Joe's unsurpassable dance music and Barnay Moran's song hits, the management has added Billy Moran, singer of McCarthy and Fisher ballads, such as "Daddy, You've Been a Mother to Me," "Rose of Virginia," and others.

Drooping shoulders and the faltering step. To retain the appearance of youth, a woman must retain health. Instead of lotions, powders and paints ask your druggist for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This is the woman's temperance tonic and nerve which has had the approval of thousands of women for nearly fifty years. It comes in liquid or tablet form, or send ten one-cent stamps to the Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package of the tablets. The "Favorite Prescription" is made without alcohol, and will dispel the pains and the weaknesses common to most women in different periods of life.

ROCHESTER, N. Y.—"I have been greatly benefited by taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and consider it the best woman's medicine I have ever taken. I became all run-down, was extremely nervous, could not sleep at night, was tired and had a worn-out feeling all the time. I was advised to take 'Favorite Prescription' and it completely restored my health and cured me of all nervousness. I would advise women who suffer as I did to give 'Favorite Prescription' a trial. I am sure they will not regret having done so."—MRS. CHAS. KUDER, 839 Smith Street.

MAKES AIRPLANE TRIP ON HER 87TH BIRTHDAY

BRATTLEBORO, Vt., June 2.—Mrs. Abbie D. Harris reached yesterday her 87th birthday and celebrated the occasion by making an airplane flight with her grandson, Fred H. Harris, who recently bought a plane. They left the Brattleboro Retreat flying field shortly after 5 o'clock and were in the air 10 minutes, as had been arranged. Mrs. Harris occupied the front seat and was told by her grandson to raise her hand if she wanted to come down before the 10 minutes were up, but she gave no signal and the machine was taken to an altitude of 3000 feet. "It was wonderful," said Mrs. Harris after returning home, "and I enjoyed every minute of it. I experienced no more ill effects than as though I had been sitting right here in my home."

TWO OVERCOME BY HEAT IN BOSTON

BOSTON, June 2.—June 1 brought with it sweltering mid-summer weather, a maximum temperature of 89, which made yesterday the hottest day since September 8 of last year, when the mercury climbed to 91, and the first two heat prostrations of the year. The first person in Boston to be prostrated this year was Freeman Crawford, aged 15, of 28 Knoll street, Roslindale, who was overcome while at work on a steamer at the Hoosac Tunnel docks, Charlestown, yesterday. He was removed to the Haymarket relief hospital. Mrs. Pierce of 195 Essex street, Melrose was overcome by the heat at Woodlawn cemetery, Everett. The police were notified, and she was taken home in Chief Hill's automobile. Yesterday wasn't by any means a record hot June 1, for two years ago the first day of June had an equally high temperature, while the record for all June is since weather recording in Boston began was 96 in 1879.

BATTERY B MEN ARE MUSTERED IN

With the exception of a few places to be filled by specially qualified men Battery B's quota was filled last night when 14 more men were passed by the medical examiner. All men have been mustered in and are awaiting for the fall when the real work for the members will begin.

Since Lowell is the first city in the state to secure its quota Capt. MacBrayne expects that Battery B will be the first in the state to be fully equipped. For the summer time there will be no drilling and the fall season will open with a big military ball to be held in the armory.

Further arrangements call for a dance every week in the armory and to make that possible the commander hopes to secure sufficient money to lay a hardwood floor in the drill shed.

The Massachusetts army commission will pay a visit to the Westford street armory soon to consider the advisability of constructing a stable in the rear of the armory. The equipment of the Lowell Battery will depend a great deal upon the quarters which are available at the armory.

VERMONT DEMOCRATS MEET

RUTLAND, Vt., June 2.—The democratic state convention met here today to select eight delegates to the party national convention and to adopt a platform. Former Mayor Henry C. Every Woman

Be she working in factory, shop, office or at home, is often a sufferer from pains here or there, from worry, despondency, and frequently suffers from backache. Very often the trouble is in the organs essentially feminine. Worry, sleepless nights, headaches, pains, disorders, irregularities and weaknesses of a distinctly feminine character in a short time bring the dull eye, the "crow's feet," the haggard look, drooping shoulders and the faltering step. To retain the appearance of youth, a woman must retain health. Instead of lotions, powders and paints ask your druggist for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. REV. JAMES GILDAY DEAD

A large number of friends in Lowell will be pained to learn of the death of Rev. James Gilday, a native of this city, and pastor of the Star of the Sea church at Marblehead, who passed away very suddenly at the rectory in Marblehead yesterday.

Rev. Fr. Gilday had not been in the best of health for the past six weeks, but his death was entirely unexpected.

REV. JAMES GILDAY

He was 82 years old and had been a priest for 35 years.

He had been pastor of the Star of the Sea church for many years and had won a reputation throughout the diocese as a strong and eloquent preacher. Prior to going to Marblehead he had served as assistant pastor at St. Patrick's church, Natick; at the Immaculate Conception church in Everett; and shortly after his ordination as curate at Hanover.

He leaves six brothers, Rev. John Gilday, pastor of St. Patrick's church in South Lawrence; Charles A. Gilday, a Brockton attorney; Henry T. Gilday, an organist in this city; Dr. Frank Gilday of Everett; Owen Gilday of this city and Thomas Gilday in the west; also three sisters, Misses Mary F. and Katherine Gilday and Mrs. John T. Donahue of Lowell.

The funeral will probably be held Saturday and the body will be brought to Lowell for burial.

An attachment for alarm clocks to awaken deaf persons by jarring their beds has been invented in Europe.

Proposals for Coal

Sealed proposals addressed to the Middlesex County Commissioners and endorsed "Proposals for Coal" will be received by said commissioners at the Court House, Lowell, until Monday, the 21st day of June, 1920, at 10 o'clock a. m. for a supply of coal to be delivered at the Training School at North Chelmsford, Mass., and at that time will be publicly opened and read.

All bids must be upon blank forms to be obtained at the office of the Commissioners, Court House, East Cambridge, and must give the prices proposed both in writing and in figures, and be signed by the bidder with his address.

Each bid is to be accompanied by a certified check for Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) payable to the County of Middlesex, said check to be returned to the bidder unless he fails to execute a contract should it be awarded to him.

All bids will be compared on the basis of the estimated quantities of coal needed, which are as follows:

500 tons, more or less, best "New River Coal" or its equal, 2000 pounds to the ton.

20 tons, more or less, best "Jackawanna Broken" or its equal, 2000 pounds to the ton.

24 tons, more or less, best nut stove coal, 2000 pounds to the ton.

The above is to be delivered at the Training School at North Chelmsford at such time and in such quantities as the superintendent may order.

The quantities are approximate only and the Commissioners expressly reserve the right of increasing or diminishing the same.

Specifications and forms of proposal and contract may be obtained at the office of the Commissioners, Court House, East Cambridge, Mass.

The Commissioners reserve the right to reject any or all bids, or accept any bid as they may deem best.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barton

Tingaling, the fairy landlord of the Land-of-Deer-Knows-Where, has his hands quite full, you may imagine. When spring comes, all the animals leave Dreamland (where they spend their winters)—all except the birds who go south, and then go to Scrubland (to get spring-cleaned), and then come crowding in twos and fours into the Land-of-Deer-Knows-Where to rent houses for the summer months.

TINGALING, THE FAIRY LANDLORD OF THE LAND-OF-DEER-KNOWS-WHERE, HAS HIS HANDS QUITE FULL.

The worst of it is that each creature is very particular about where he goes, for he won't just live in any kind of a house at all. It has to be so and so and so. Samantha Squirrel has to have a house just so far above the ground; Mrs. Woodchuck has to have one just so far under the ground with a certain number of hallways, and Mrs. Flicker (Mrs. Yellow-Hammer) has to have a house with a certain sized doorway, so un-

NURSES GRADUATE AT LOCAL HOSPITAL

A class of 10 young women were graduated as trained nurses at the Lowell General Hospital this afternoon, exercises being held at 3 o'clock. Those taking part in the program were Mayor Perry D. Thompson, Rev. N. W. Matthews and Dr. A. R. Gardner and Miss Mary M. Hiddle of the hospital staff. Diplomas were presented to the following graduates by Arthur G. Pollard, president of the board of trustees:

Clara Madeleine Watson, Lowell; Eulalie Florence Audet, St. Anselm, P. Q.; Frances Laurie Barnes, Lowell; Corrine Celeste Patnaude, Haverhill; Ruth May Harwood, Nashua, N. H.; Edna Victoria Anderson, Manchester, N. H.; Cecelia Ortel, Lowell; Helen Frances Aaron, Manchester, N. H.; Margaret Louise Houston, Bosconen, N. H.; Alice Ellen Adams, Weymouth Mills, N. S.

HELD ANNUAL OUTING AT CANOBE LAKE

Students of Lowell Commercial college put away their books and typewriters and adding machines today and joining hands with members of the faculty journeyed to Canobie Lake park for their annual outing, always a much anticipated feature of pre-graduation days.

A special car filled with some 200 merry-makers left the college in Merrimack square at 9 this morning and an hour later arrived at the beautiful New Hampshire park. Here they met students from the Haverhill Commercial college and the Lawrence Business school and united with them in a program of enjoyment. Cooling breezes from the lake swept away the humidity which those left at home were doomed to suffer during the day and the setting was ideal in every way.

At 10.30 a program of sports, varied in character and including contests for both young men and women, was started. One of the features was a bowling match between two boys and two girls from each of the schools.

At noon a basket luncheon was enjoyed and the features of the afternoon's program included a basketball game between a nine made up of Lowell students and another made up of Lawrence and Haverhill students. Last year the down-river team scored a victory and the Lowellites were out for revenge today. Dancing in the spacious hall at the park was also enjoyed and in this connection there was a prize waltz contest and solo dancing by Miss Smith of Lawrence.

The committee in charge of the affair, representing the Lowell Commercial college, was as follows: James Cohen, chairman; Gladys Ingram, Marjory Sears, Blanche Corcoran, Estelle Ralph, Patrick Welch and Theodore Ro-barge.

The first armored vessels were built by the French for use in the Crimean war.

Profits Helped Build Our Business

Do you think it's right to save money?

Swift & Company's business has been built up partly by selling capital stock for cash and partly by thrifty saving, putting some of our earnings each year back into the business to increase facilities for production.

That is what most all of us seek to do—save part of our earnings for future usefulness.

It is the way American industries have been built up. It means the least drain on the financial resources of the country.

For the past twenty-four years Swift & Company has made an average profit from all sources of 11.3 per cent on investment (capital and surplus), and 2.3 cents on each dollar of sales—a fraction of a cent per pound. Out of this we have paid dividends and saved something to help us keep pace with a growing country.

OYSTERS ARE FUNNY "BIRDS"

Born as Sexless Entity the Oyster Shows Amazing Versatility

All Kinds of Class in Female Incarnation — Great Egg Layers

Have you ever become intimately acquainted with an oyster? He, she or it (for an oyster combines all genders in one), is one of the most curious of creatures. For instance, when an oyster is born it is an it, a sexless entity. Early in its career, it may become a "he" oyster and indulge in all proper masculine sports peculiar to oysters. And the next year, with amazing versatility, the "he" oyster will transmute himself into a "she" oyster. The following year, tiring of the gentle joys of oyster femininity, she may again become a bearded oyster bachelor. Just about this time somebody eats it and its sex acrobatics suddenly terminate.

An oyster is popularly supposed to Change of life helped by RED PILLS for Pale and Weak Women.

During my married life, I have had twelve children, but nevertheless, I had enjoyed the best of health until the change of life which left me in a critical state of health and in a weakened condition. I had been advised by friends to try RED PILLS, which were sold at a very reasonable price. I did as I was told; and after using about six boxes, I was astonished to see how much better I was feeling; therefore I continued to take them regularly until I was completely recovered. Without any outside help, I attend to all the household duties, cooking, and sewing for eight people, and still I enjoy perfect health.

MRS. JULIE SEVIGNY,

Manchester, N. H.

RED PILLS are for women only.

They are always sold in boxes of fifty pills, 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2.50. See that the name of the "Francis American Chemical Company Limited" is on every box.

have no power of locomotion, which is largely true, except that in its early infancy it is a regular gadabout. Just out of its cradle, a kid oyster develops a bunch of little feeders with which it wriggles home. As soon as it selects a site and squats thereon, it loses all power of locomotion, and becomes a permanent resident of that locality.

In the female incarnation there are all kinds of class to an oyster, as may be gathered from the fact that a lady oyster in a single season will lay from 33,000,000 to 95,000,000 eggs, every egg a potential oyster. Fortunately only a small number of eggs evolve into oysters. If they all grew up and prospered there would be so many oysters in the sea there would be no room for the ships.

An oyster feeds on diatoms, a low order of vegetable life found in the water. One cannot tell anything about the sex of an oyster by its color. Those with a brownish color acquired it from the peculiar diatoms on which they have fed, and they may be female or male or neither one of the two.

Besides feeding itself and wadding fat and succulent, the oyster has the added task of building its own house. It gets its lime to make the shell from the salt water and feeds on the diatoms that inhabit fresh water. This condition of affairs makes the oyster very particular about the character and quality of the water it lives in. It has to be careful or perish.

Neither pure fresh water or extremely salt water is fatal to the bivalve. Therefore it selects for its habitat a location where the two varieties of water meet and mingle in what is called "brackish" water. Here it finds both home and food.

A great many people imagine that an oysterman merely has to go out in a boat and pull up a load of oysters and take them to market. This is far from true. An oyster, just like an oyster plant, has to be cultivated, transplanted, nourished, protected and harvested at the proper season or it is half out of luck.

An oyster must, first of all, have a firm, hard substance to cling to. Lost in the mud, it is quickly covered and it dies. Old oyster shells make the ideal flooring for an oyster bed. This is the first thing an oysterman must provide. Then he plants the seed. When he takes his first harvest, if he is a proper oysterman, he returns to the water all oysters less than three inches in length from hinge to mouth. This gives the younger oyster a chance to develop and become the potential mother of nearly a hundred million oysters next year.

The oyster is a good citizen. It is quiet, law-abiding, peaceful; furnishes a succulent, delicately flavored food, and brings in a large revenue. It is dependable. If you put an oyster in a certain place you may feel assured it will be there when you come back. It provides its own home, makes all necessary improvements and feeds itself.

When called on to fulfill its destiny at the table, it always makes good if it has been shown proper consideration. If you knock the nose off an oyster in handling, the water will run out of it and it gets annoyed and dies on you. If you handle it gently it will live on this water for several days.

After its death the oyster makes a good road bed. It reproduces itself with promptness, dispatch and liberality. No oyster ever went on a strike or put up an argument with its employer. It is an absolute necessity to the success of an oyster stew, although sometimes it is not as numerous there-in as may be desired.

An oyster is constructive, conservative and a delightful dinner companion. All it requires is just a decent chance to grow up and make good on its job. An oyster is non-sectarian, non-political, and the basis of a great and constantly growing industry. It is absolutely indifferent to what goes on about it, despite the ancient query and answer:

"What noise annoys an oyster?"
"A noisy noise annoys an oyster."

DEMOCRATS SEND WOMEN TO CONVENTION

WASHINGTON, June 2.—The democratic party is dealing more generously with newly enfranchised women voters than the republicans, according to the lists of women delegates and alternates to the national conventions.

Fifty out of 53 states and territories sending delegates to the conventions have filed their lists for the G.O.P. These average just one-half a delegate each for the women, their total being 55. One hundred and thirty-one women will occupy alternate seats from these states and territories.

Four Times as Many

Reports on delegations for the San Francisco convention to date cover only 20 states. The total of full-fledged women delegates from these 20, however, is 85—or an average of better than three from each state. Of women alternates, these 20 states list 127.

The expectation is that women's representation among voting delegates at the democratic convention will be close to four times their representation at the Chicago convention.

No woman has been given a place on the republican delegation from any one of the six New England states. The democrats, however, have given the women three out of 10 delegates from Rhode Island, and also three alternates. Although denied any seats as delegates in Massachusetts, 15 women from that state have been chosen as alternates.

Suffrage Stronghold

Missouri is revealed as the stronghold of woman suffrage, judged by representation at the conventions. Three delegates and 13 alternates will represent the state at Chicago, and 9 delegates and 200 alternates will occupy Missouri seats at San Francisco.

Second in line stands Iowa, with four women delegates and 10 alternates at the republican convention and five delegates and eight alternates at "Prisco."

New York, with more than twice the representation of Missouri and three times that of Iowa, sends only two women delegates and 20 alternates to the republican convention. New York democrats, however, accord women 13 delegates and 44 alternates.

The five Keystone states of New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, with a total of 396 delegates, have named just two women as delegates to the Chicago convention and these come from New York. The G.O.P. delegations from Ohio and Pennsylvania will be exclusively masculine, but Illinois has granted three women places as alternates, Indiana eight and New York 20.

WILSON NOT TO ACT ON FALL'S ADVICE

WASHINGTON, June 2.—There is not the slightest probability that President Wilson will follow the recommendations of the Fall investigating committee submitted to the senate in dealing with the new government in Mexico.

Senator Fall would compel the de la Huerta government, or its successor, to sign a treaty with the United States specifically giving certain guarantees to American citizens and their property in Mexico, telling the Mexicans in advance that this is the price of recognition.

It was pointed out that the wording

Domino Syrup

of the recommendations is such as render difficult the negotiation of any treaty with Mexico, even if the president were disposed to follow the suggestions made by the senate committee. Any Mexican or other Latin American would be certain to take offense at the method proposed by the New Mexico senator.

The recommendations of the committee were the subject of no little speculation in diplomatic quarters yesterday. Administration officials declined to comment upon them. The understanding was conveyed, that the president could not seriously be expected by Senator Fall to follow out the program recommended in his report.

To enable a person to obtain water from a bubbling fountain, a cup has been invented with a hole in the bottom, through which it is filled.

RUPTURE EXPERT IN LOWELL

DEMONSTRATES THE FAMOUS RICE METHOD FREE TO CALLERS AT HIS HOTEL

Lady Assistant in Attendance

If you are ruptured, your big opportunity has now arrived. If you would like to be free from the slavery of gougng, pinching, chafing trusses that make life a burden, then HERE and NOW is the time to act.

J. B. Weldon, an expert in rupture cases, trained under the personal direction of W. S. Rice of Adams, New York, the famous discoverer of the Rice Non-Surgical Rupture Method, will be at the Richardson Hotel, Lowell, Mass., June 3, 4 and 5. A lady assistant, Mrs. E. Hamilton, accompanies him to attend upon lady callers.

Mr. Weldon is here to personally demonstrate to all ruptured people what the Rice Rupture Method can accomplish. You have, no doubt, heard and read much about this famous Method and the cures which thousands have reported from it. Now you have the chance to find out all about it—to have it demonstrated to you and to see what it can do in your own case. Just call at the hotel and Mr. Weldon will give you his personal attention, his best advice and complete demonstration absolutely without charge.

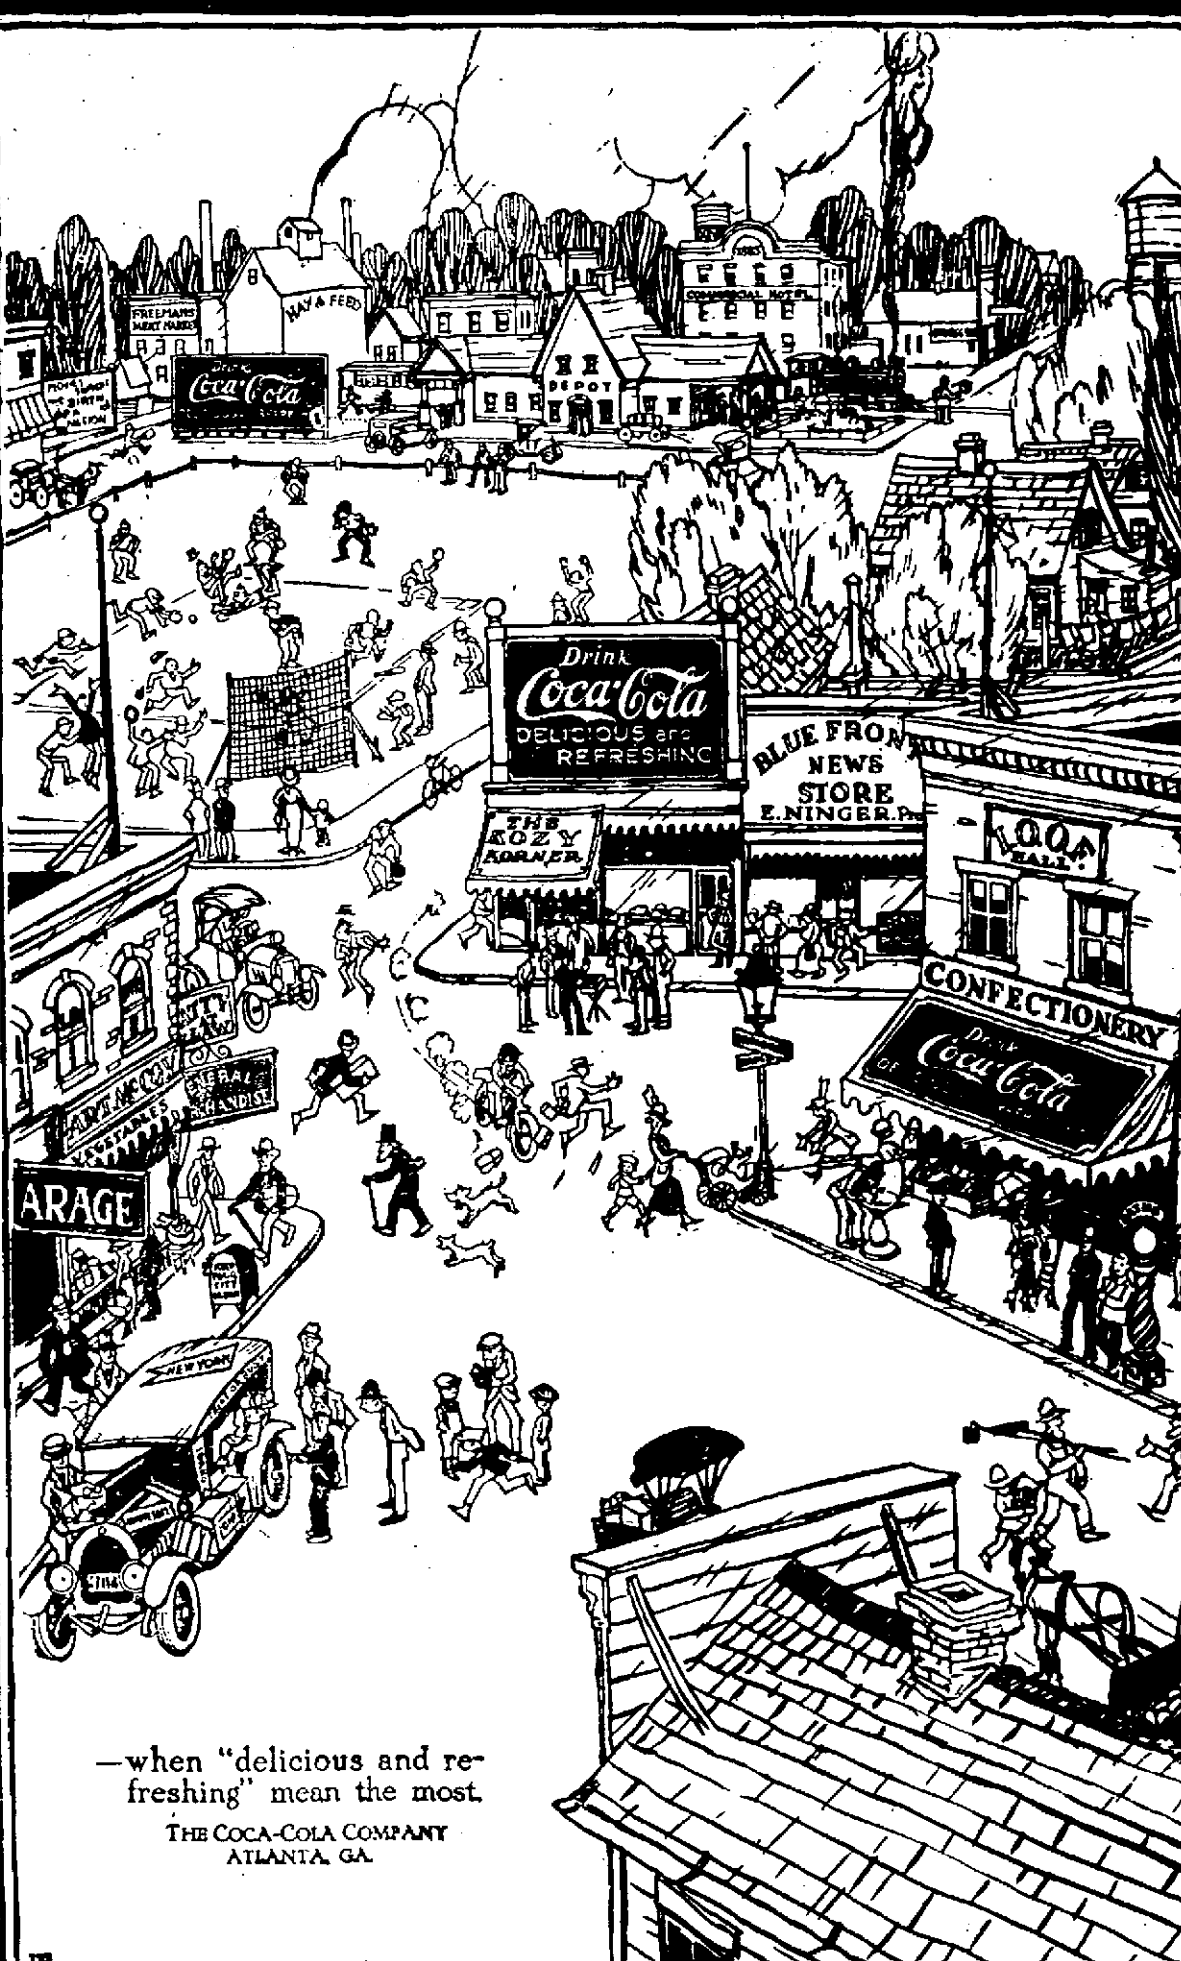

Are you tired of that binding, hampering, uncomfortable truss? Would you like to be free of it forever? Then investigate this Rice Method and find out the possibilities it holds out. Surely a Method that could cause so many thousands of former rupture sufferers to report cures must be worthy of your full and complete investigation.

The Rice Method is different from anything else. It is modern, up-to-the-minute, abreast of the latest scientific developments. It is the one Method that you are not asked to take on faith alone—the one Method that is positively demonstrated to you, right on your own person, without any charge whatever. You do not spend a penny unless, after having a full and complete demonstration, you decide that this is the Method for you. And you—you alone—are the sole judge of that.

In justice to yourself, come in and see Mr. Weldon. Remember, he will be here only 3 days, then your opportunity will be gone. Grasp it NOW. It may prove to be the wisest thing you ever did and, anyway, it costs you nothing to find out.

Remember, come to the Richardson Hotel any day from 9 to 12 forenoon, 2 to 5 afternoon, or 7 to 9 in the evening. The dates are June 3, 4 and 5th.

Don't let this opportunity get away from you.

GEN. MARISCAL TAKEN PRISONER IN MEXICO

MEXICO CITY, June 2.—General Silvestre Mariscal, former governor of Oaxaca, who has been an opponent of the new Mexican government in that state since the fall of the Carranza regime, has been wounded and captured by a revolutionary detachment, according to a message to General Obregon.

General Manuel Pelaez, revolutionary leader in the state of Tamaulipas, has arrived here and conferred last night with General Obregon.

A numerous staff, including eight generals and about 50 other officers, accompanied General Pelaez, and the entire party is said to be plentifully supplied with gold coin, principally American.

Dr. W. G. Rombough of 263 Westford street has closed his office for one week during which he will enjoy a well deserved rest.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Lynch of Aiken street and Mr. Frank Lynch of Fort Hill avenue, left this morning for Buffalo, N. Y. on a brief vacation.

Mrs. Michel Goudreau and her daughter, of 78 Aiken street, have gone to Old Town, Me., where Mrs. Goudreau has been called to the bedside of her aged father, who is seriously ill.

Chief Carey sent Willis A. Smith of 253 Appleton street and Wilfred Fournier of 12 Dalton street to Boston today as recruits for the naval service. Smith is an ex-service man.

Chief Carey of the local navy recruiting station sent one man down to Boston yesterday as a fireman, third class, for machinist's mate. He was Charles Ward of 37 Boxford street, Lawrence.

The Lowell high school seniors who graduate this month had a group photograph taken this forenoon in the school yard. About 200 boys and girls sat on a semi-circular platform arranged for the occasion and all smiled as only seniors can as the camera revolved on its mission.

Dr. Charles E. Donlan, a former Lowell man, who was recently removed from the position of superintendent of the state hospital at Deer Island after a two years' fight for the position, was in Lowell today renewing acquaintances. He is in excellent health and plans to rest this summer.

Letter Carrier Charles A. Carey left this city Saturday to attend the state convention of the Massachusetts Letter Carriers' association in Springfield, Mass. At the close of the convention he will visit his daughter, who is a teacher in the public schools of that city.

H. F. Howe, recently chosen general secretary of the Lowell Y.M.C.A., has begun his work here, succeeding R. R. Gumb, who has served capably as temporary secretary for about two years. The new secretary comes from Attleboro and has had much success in association work in other cities and towns.

Employees of the park department today began placing plants and flowers in the various parks of the city for the summer season. Geraniums and cannas predominated those that are to bloom for the rest of the summer and there were also many other varieties in the set in place. The tulips which began blooming several weeks ago are about to be removed.

On the occasion of the seventh anniversary of their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin E. Jay of 18 Dutton street were pleasantly surprised Monday evening, when a number of friends called at their home and after showering them with congratulations and best wishes, presented them numerous appropriate gifts. Musical numbers were given and a chicken salad supper was served.

BUSINESS FAIR IN LOCAL SHOE SHOPS

Despite the fact that shoe shops in other cities are curtailing considerably, while others have shut down altogether, the local shops are holding their own at present. It was learned this morning. The local factories are running full time with a full complement of help, but as one official stated this morning, it is not known what the future will bring about.

Business has been very good for shoe shops during the past year, particularly for the local factories, some of which have been forced to operate overtime in order to keep up with the orders on hand, but for the past few weeks all overtime has been stopped. The superintendent of a local shop stated this morning that he believes July will be a quiet month as far as the manufacturing of shoes in Lowell is concerned and that during that month employees of shoe factories in this city will have no trouble in getting vacations.
